A Hunger Artist - Short Stories and Classic Literature A large circus with its huge number of men, animals, and gimmicks, which are constantly being let go and replenished, can use anyone at any time, even a hunger artist, provided, of course, his demands are modest. Moreover, in this particular case it was not only the hunger artist himself who was engaged, but also his old and famous name. SparkNotes: A Hunger Artist: Religious Imagery Religious Imagery. The religious imagery and references in "A Hunger Artist" make the story an allegory for the modern world's rejection of faith. An allegory is a story with a literal, surface meaning that corresponds to a secondary, symbolic meaning. In "A Hunger Artist," the hunger artist's life is parallel to Jesus Christ's.

SparkNotes: A Hunger Artist: The Hunger Artist Driven to renounce the nourishment that the rest of humanity embraces, the hunger artist literally lives in self-denial, forsaking comfort, companionship, and, most important, food, all of which are necessary to survival. Thus, the hunger artist's devotion to his art constitutes a thinly masked death wish. A Hunger Artist & Other Stories; Poems and Songs of Love ... A Hunger Artist & Other Stories; Poems and Songs of Love. These two works were put together mostly because of the link between the original writers. Kafka was a friend and a mentor for Langer, although we also learn in Langer's poetry that he was in love with Kafka. But let's start with the beginning.
